

2025 Grillenparz 1^{OTW} Riesling

Origin	Appellation	Kremstal DAC
	Village	Stein
	Cru	Ried Grillenparz 1 ^{OTW}
	Terroir	Gföhler Gneis, Calcareous carbonate conglomerate
Description	A spot ("porce") where crickets feel particularly at home. The cru offers plenty of warmth and sunshine for Riesling, leading to optimal grape ripening. Geologically, this vineyard is very diverse. In the deepest soil horizons, one finds Gföhl gneiss (more than 500 million years old), above which lies calcareous carbonate conglomerate of the Hollenburg-Karlstetten Formation (more than 15 million years old), and in the topsoil, Danube gravel and loess.
	2025 – "cool" wines with vibrant acidity and pure terroir character. After a mild winter, vegetation in the Kremstal region began with bud break in mid-April. A period of changeable weather until flowering (second week of June) was followed by a heat wave. The summer months were accompanied by ideal rainfall. Cool nights, especially from mid-August onwards, characterized the ripening phase. Unsettled weather made the harvest, which began in the third week of September, a test of patience requiring several passes.
